

A small room - R2

Upper floor, south-west segment · scale 1:25 on A2
Floor area $\approx 23.6\text{ m}^2$ · clear height 2.60 m
For 1–3 people, to withdraw, rest, make love, sleep

Front to the walkway

- 3 sliding shoji panels (oak frame, linen / paper infill):
closed / half (as drawn, 1.4 m) / fully open (2.9 m)
- Signal lantern by the door: lit = welcome / ask,
dark = private

Inside

- Sleeping nest under the window: earthen plinth 0.30 m, natural-latex mattress, sheepskin, cushions
- Cob bench with a curved back along the side wall
- Round wool rug, low tea tray, floor lantern, plant
- Paper pendant, two clay wall sconces (dimnable)
- Linen curtain at the window

Light and air

- Window 2.60 × 1.65 m, sill 0.45 m; fixed safety glass up to 0.90 m, opening part = rescue window
- Sliding larch shutters outside
- Skylight 1.40 × 1.10 m over the nest (walk-on frosted glass in the terrace above)

Build

- Partitions 160 mm timber frame + clay plaster, acoustic infill; oak floor on the slab

